In July, the Fund generated a return of 0.3%, in line with its objective to deliver a return in excess of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand (RBNZ) Official Cash Rate (OCR) after fees.

Short-dated NZ bank bills, which reflect interbank funding levels, continued to move lower over the month as the market prices in potential OCR cuts. At its July meeting, the RBNZ maintained the OCR at 3.25% and maintained optionality for any change to the OCR at the upcoming meetings. Current market pricing anticipates a 25bps cut to the OCR at the August meeting and a further cut next year.

The portfolio management of the Fund remains focused on maintaining its low-risk strategy, which is built on a diversified portfolio of cash, short-dated debt securities and term deposits, so as to protect capital. As a reminder, while the yield of the Fund may vary over time, we remain confident in meeting our goal of delivering returns above the OCR after fees.
