Fees and Expenses

There are ongoing fees and expenses that need to be paid in relation to my financial advice. My advice fee is included in a Portfolio Management Fee, which is the total cost of the DIMS (or advisory service as the case may be) including the custodial platform charges, which provides for secure custody of your funds via a third party. If you proceed with my advice, the Portfolio Management Fee will be automatically deducted at the beginning of each month from your Milford Wealth Management Portfolio.

Fund Fees

In addition to the Portfolio Management Fee, there will be charges for each fund held within your portfolio. An estimate of the fees and expenses that you will be charged (based on the value of your proposed investment) is contained in the 'Fees and Costs' section of your Investment Plan. Further information about Milford's fund fees can be found on our website at milfordasset.com/information-hub/fees

All fees and expenses, including fund fees will be automatically deducted and will reduce your returns.

What are my obligations?

As a Financial Adviser, I have a number of legal duties. When providing you with advice, I am required to:

- Give priority to your interests by taking all reasonable steps to ensure my advice is not materially influenced by my own interests
- Exercise care, diligence and skill in providing you with advice
- Meet the standards of competence, knowledge and skill set by the Code of Professional Conduct for Financial Advice Services (these are designed to make sure that I have the expertise needed to provide you with advice)

It is important you read this document

Nature and Scope of my Advice

I will provide you with financial advice about the Milford Wealth Management discretionary investment management service (DIMS), the Milford Cash Fund in relation to your Cash Management Account or, as the case may be, the Milford Investment Funds for the advisory service.

Limitations to my Advice

My advice is limited to Milford products only. I do not compare other providers' products.

I provide financial advice in relation to managed funds (Milford products only) and Milford's DIMS.

In providing you with financial advice, I will only consider the amount you have indicated is available for investment with the Milford Wealth Management service.

I do not give specific advice on some of the wider issues you may need to consider such as estate planning, taxation and insurance planning. You will need to consult a specialist if you would like advice on these matters.
