The Fund return was flat in March, bringing the one-year return to 0.5%.

The banking crisis in the US saw investors rush to the safety of bonds. But remarkably, share markets also delivered positive returns last month. The banking crisis does look to be contained, but one implication is that bank lending will be more cautious going forward. This will likely keep bond prices elevated, even if global recession fails to appear in short order.

Meanwhile, share markets appear overly optimistic on the outlook – any economic weakness will also knock corporate profits. For this reason, the Fund has maintained only a minimal exposure to shares. Last month the Fund's exposure to financial company bonds did drag on performance as these gave back some of their previous gains. This weakness was more than offset by gains in other bonds, notably those in Australia and NZ.

Going forward the Fund can continue to generate returns from income assets whilst we wait for better opportunities to buy shares.

1. The Fund does not have a performance benchmark, hence a market index has been included for comparison purposes. See the Statement of Investment Policy and Objectives for more details on the market index. The market index is a blend of indices that represent the Fund's neutral asset allocation. Note the Fund's investment strategy is designed to achieve its objective, which may mean that at times, the returns of the market index may not be an appropriate measure. 2. After the base fund fee but before tax. 3. Yield to maturity (before tax and fees) for underlying investments in the Fund. 4. Where applicable, the Base Fund Fee includes an estimate of non-related underlying fund charges. 5. The Total Fund Fees comprise the Base Fund Fee and any estimated Performance Fee. Please refer to the Product Disclosure Statement for more information as to how these are calculated. 6. Includes the reinvestment of distributions. Please note past performance is not a guarantee of future returns.
