In May the Fund generated a return of 0.5%, which was in line with its objective to deliver a return in excess of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand (RBNZ) Official Cash Rate (OCR) after fees.

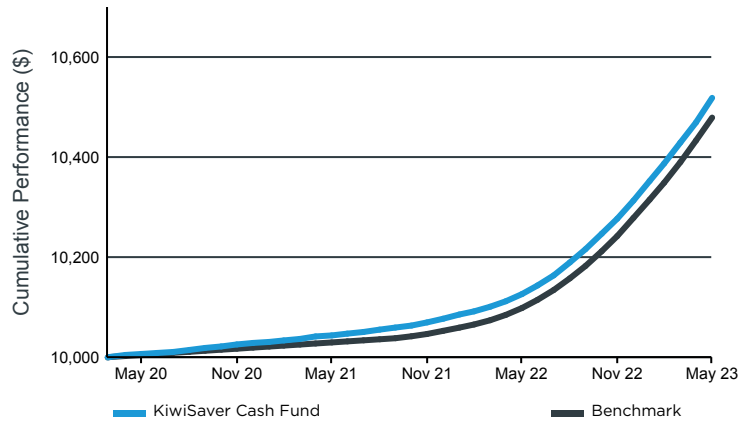

The RBNZ increased the OCR by 0.25 percentage points in May to 5.5%, as widely expected. However, in a surprise move to the market, the RBNZ suggested this may be the peak. It is now no longer forecasting future OCR increases in the near to medium term as its base case. Whether or not this eventuates will be dependent on how the economic data develops from here. Our expectation is that interest rates will remain at elevated levels, when compared to recent years, for some time. That will continue to benefit the Fund in terms of the interest rates into which it can reinvest maturing holdings.

The portfolio management of the Fund remains focused on maintaining its low-risk strategy, which is built on a diversified portfolio of cash, short-dated debt securities and term deposits, so as to protect capital. As a reminder, while the yield of the Cash Fund may vary over time, its objective is to deliver a return in excess of the OCR after fees. We expect we will continue to be able to deliver on this objective.
