The Fund returned 0.9% in May, with a one-year return of 8.4%. Fund performance was lifted by the rebound in both bond and share markets after the declines in April. The lift in shares was dominated by global shares. The Fund had a number of winners on this front, and it is encouraging to see some of the larger positions (such as HCA, Elevance and NatWest Group) accumulating solid gains over the past few months. Last month saw the RBNZ surprise investors by suggesting they could hike rates further, even as it is clear the domestic economy is struggling. This caused a squeeze in the NZ dollar, and local bond and share markets to fall. We continue to expect interest rate cuts (and potentially sharp ones) later this year, so have added to NZ bond positions as well as retaining our short exposure in the NZ dollar.

In the face of a weaker domestic share market, it was pleasing to see our key NZ share holding - Contact Energy - rally on positive news about the extension of the Tiwai Point Aluminium Smelter operating contract.

The outlook is getting murkier as sticky inflation and the US election create uncertainty about policy, against a backdrop of modestly expensive share markets. The return outlook continues to be bolstered by solid income from our bond holdings.

1. The Fund does not have a performance benchmark, hence a market index has been included for comparison purposes. See the Statement of Investment Policy and Objectives for more details on the market index. The market index is a blend of indices that represent the Fund's neutral asset allocation. Note the Fund's investment strategy is designed to achieve its objective, which may mean that at times, the returns of the market index may not be an appropriate measure. 2. After the Base Fund Fee but before tax and before the performance fee. 3. Where applicable, the Base Fund Fee includes an estimate of non-related underlying fund charges. 4. The Total Fund Fees comprise the Base Fund Fee and any estimated Performance Fee. Please refer to the Product Disclosure Statement for more information as to how these are calculated. 5. Please note past performance is not a guarantee of future returns.
