Today, the Milford team comprises more than 100 passionate and talented individuals who share the common purpose of delivering the best results for our clients. By drawing on the team's depth and diversity of experience, we work together to make insightful investment decisions on our client's behalf.

Our active approach to investing gives us the flexibility to take advantage of opportunities as they arise and manage risk along the way. We also invest in the same funds as our clients, so you know we are motivated to see you do well, because we are on the same journey as you.
