Invested in expertise, performance and insights

Milford was formed in 2003 by an experienced group of individuals who recognised the need for an investment company that provides New Zealanders with a world-class investment partner they can trust

Today, the Milford team comprises more than 100 passionate and talented individuals who share the common purpose of delivering the best results for our clients. By drawing on the team's depth and diversity of experience, we work together to make insightful investment decisions on our client's behalf.

Our active approach to investing gives us the flexibility to take advantage of opportunities as they arise and manage risk along the way. We also invest in the same funds as our clients, so you know we are motivated to see you do well, because we are on the same journey as you.

We invest alongside you

Active approach to investing

Expert research, analysis & insights

Award-winning products & service

With the returns on cash savings accounts at historic lows, more and more people are starting to look at alternative ways to get their money working harder for them

Benefits of Investment Funds
